RIGHTEOUSNESS may lie in one's face alone*

A COMPANION
has a smile and a cheerful word for his associates.*

On land,

a man is sincere

A woman looks

upon a sufferer with compassion

A RIGHTEOUS COMPANION is measured by the character and by the

Our Dedication to Jerry C. Roundy

Just among students

With service to mankind in their hearts, men become great leaders. Patience, understanding, faith and love are among the qualities which build up the character and disposition of our righteous companions. To associate and to communicate successfully with our friends and neighbors is one of the most worthy of goals for this life.

This Na Hoa Pono of 1968 is dedicated to Jerry C. Roundy who has portrayed all of these qualities. In every situation, whether it be in teaching his religion classes, in his Bishopric responsibilities, or just among our students of The Church College of Hawaii, Jerry Roundy has certainly represented our "Righteous Companion" of 1968.

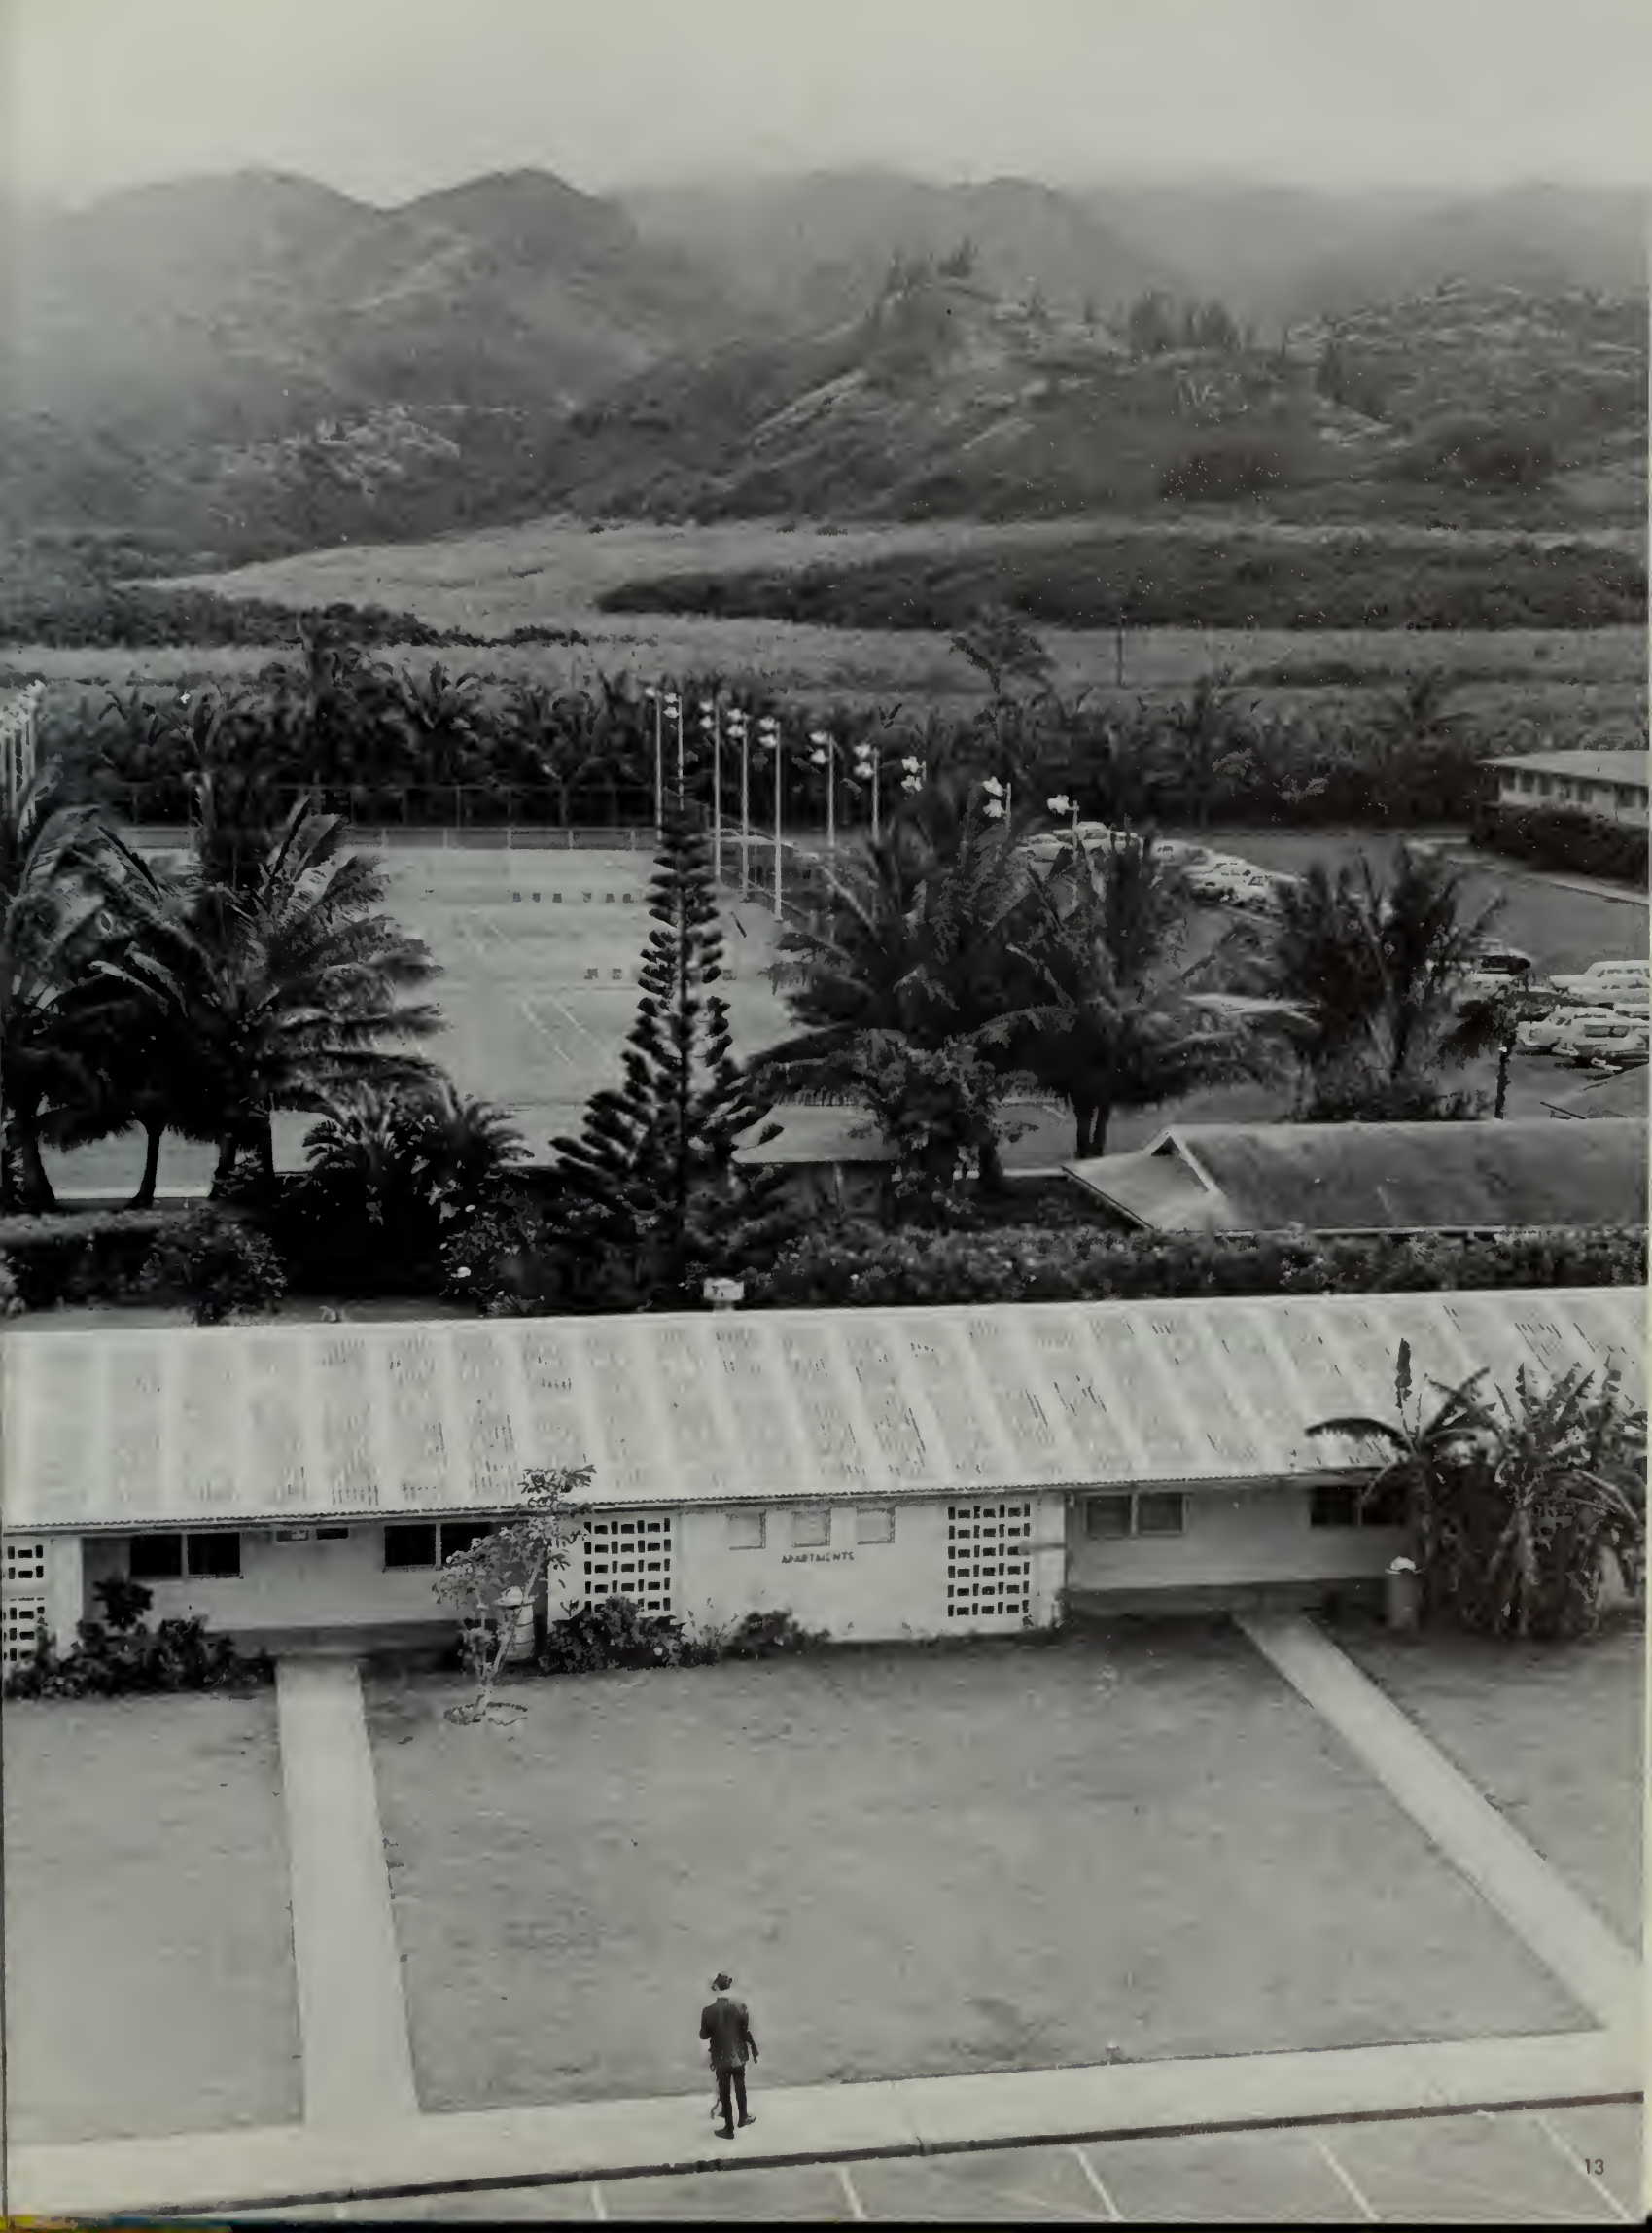

Our Leaders

*He stood at the crossroads all alone,
The sunrise in his face;
He had no thought for the world unknown
He was set for a manly race.
But the road stretched East and the road stretched West.
And the boy knew not which road was best
So he strolled on the road that led him down,
And he lost the race, and the victor's crown,
He was caught at last in an angry snare,
Because no one stood at the crossroads there,
To show him the better road.
Another day at the self same place,
A boy with high hopes stood;
He, too, was set for a manly race,
He, too, was seeking the things that are good;
But one was there who the roads did know,
And that one showed him which way to go.
So he turned from the road that would lead him down,
And he won the race and the victor's crown,
He walks today the highway fair,
Because one stood at the crossroads there,
To show him the better road.*

Student campus life as represented in the pages of the Na Hoa Pono is an important adjunct of the education process. Higher education in the laboratory, the classroom, and the lecture hall. However, professions, business, and industry are seeking people who not only operate a slide rule but also understand and practice social graces.

A dance is a dance but could it also be a part of the broadening experience, a learning situation in sharpening one's personality to the acceptance of the group? And how about the beach party or the hay ride or the group hike in the mountains?

The importance of academic learnings is not to be depreciated. Truly the demands and the expectations are great, but no person fully realizes his potential who does not also have the ability to meet people, to socialize, to relax and to have fun.

A great opportunity and advantage at The Church College of Hawaii comes from inter-cultural exchange of ideas and associations. World problems will be solved when nations learn to love each other and appreciate each other's peculiarities, traditions, and culture.

These pages depict that part of education for which no grades are given but which is highly effective in the development of the "whole" man.

Owen J. Cook, President

Students

The Dean of Students directs residence halls, cafeteria, and student related activities on campus.

He also supervises non-academic advisement for veterans of the armed services, the director of student activities and advises CCH's studentbody officers.

Assisting Dean Olson as full-time secretary is Mary Niu.

Academics

Dr. Kay J. Andersen
Academic Dean

This year two associate academic deans were appointed by Dr. Owen J. Cook, CCH president. They are Dr. Wayne Allison, dean in charge of language arts, curriculum, and class scheduling, and Wylie Swapp, associate academic dean for continuing education, summer school, and forums and lyceums.

Dr. Kay J. Andersen, academic dean, returned from a year's post-doctoral study at the University of Michigan.

Also joining the staff late this year was William B. Tippy (not pictured) in a newly created post, Assistant to the President for Development.

Business Office

Dennis Agle
Business Manager

Handing out student paychecks is one of the many functions of the college's Business Office. In addition, it keeps tab of money earned and spent, supervises the college's new post office and other college related money matters.

Assisting business managers Dennis Agle are staff members Mildred Goo, Agnes Haiku, Delores Loveland, Dorothy Suafilo and Mary Eubank.

A newly-remodeled air-conditioned and carpeted bookstore opened in September to meet the needs of students, faculty, as well as community residents.

Besides books, the bookstore sells school and office supplies, candy, all-occasion cards, clothing, postcards and Hawaiian or CCH souvenirs, drugs and other products.

There are several employment part-time opportunities in the bookstore, which is open six days a week.

L. Eugene Crismon became bookstore manager this year.

Placement

Supervising registration twice a year is one of the biggest responsibilities of the registrar. In addition, he and his staff answer inquiries about the college, applications for admission and records student grades each semester.

Dr. Spurrier also provides administration and faculty with data representing trends of applications, enrollment, drop out, class loads, grade curves, graduation eligibility, and grade point averages.

Winona Logan, Paula Needham Taosoga, Vernelle Arakaki, and other part-time staff members assist him.

Counseling

Dr. O. Pat Barney
Director of Counseling

A new Graduate Admissions Assistance Center was added to the Counseling Services this year. Its aim is to help seniors in their search for graduate study opportunities in various parts of the United States.

Confidential counseling on orientation, occupational, academic, or personal problems is also available from a well-qualified staff of three full-time personnel.

A browsing room with college catalogues and booklets relating to occupational opportunities and personal improvement is also available to students.

Dwayne N. Andersen, counselor, was also named Foreign Students Advisor this year to specifically aid foreigners to the U.S., which make up about one-fourth of the CCH studentbody.

Late in April the CCH library was named the Ralph E. Wooley Library in honor of the late Oahu LDS stake president and developer of CCH and Laie.

Also, a $25,000 air conditioning system was added to the entire library this year.

In addition to more book stacks to provide space for a collection topping the 45,000 mark, the library has current periodicals and newspapers from the U.S. and the Pacific islands, a special Pacific collection of books and genealogy facilities.

There are many opportunities for part-time student employment in the library.

Helen Moffat became director of library services this year. Theron Atkinson joined the library staff as librarian of technical services.

Art

Opportunities to unleash artistic talents and gain a greater appreciation for the arts are readily available to students at The Church College of Hawaii.

In addition to courses in design, drawing, painting, sculpture and crafts, students may gain rich background in art history and train for careers in art education.

Campus art exhibits give budding artists opportunities to display their best efforts and share their creative talents or techniques they have learned in classes.

A. LaMoyne Garside was appointed new art department chairman this year.

English

One of the nation's first undergraduate programs in Teaching English as a Second Language was initiated this year at the Church College.

In addition to this new BATESL (bachelor of arts in the teaching of English as a second language) degree, department majors are available in arts and sciences English and English education. A minor in journalism is also offered.

The Journalism Department provides students with experience in yearbook and news-papers with experience in yearbook and newspaper production, as well as knowledge in specialized areas such as photography, public relations, advertising, and mass communications.

William Conway became director of the English Language Institute when Ishmael W. Stagner left for doctoral studies. Paul Thomas, Robert Tippetts, and David Pack are new instructors in the department.

This division helps provide an insight into the various foreign cultures through literature, as well as an intensive study of grammar and pronunciation forms.

Students may study language for humanities credit, or as aims toward a bachelor of arts degree or church mission calls. Minors in each of the languages except Hawaiian are offered.

A specially equipped language lab helps students perfect their pronunciation and comprehension by providing tape recordings of language lessons and music for listening and learning.

Garnet Birch and Clinton Kanahale are new instructors in Chinese and Hawaiian, respectively.

Helping students learn the social and political life through study of the past and present is the aim of the History and Social Sciences department.

Courses in history, political science, psychology, anthropology, sociology, and geography are included in this department.

A new Asian Studies program is also affiliated with the history department. It is an interdepartmental major drawn from the fields of art, economics, geography, history, language, literature, political science, religion, and sociology and is designed for students interested in gaining a foundation for a business, teaching, or governmental career as well as for specialized work in the Far East.

Dr. Eugene E. Campbell, visiting professor of history, and Dr. Robert D. Craig are new to the department this year.

Education

The Church College of Hawaii specializes in preparing teachers for the elementary and secondary schools.

The Education Department offers a four-year undergraduate program plus courses to qualify the student for the Hawaii State Department of Education's professional (fifth-year) certificate. A variety of fifth-year courses provide poor opportunities for teachers in service to gain further up-to-date knowledge and professional development.

Teaching majors are offered in 12 areas including art, the sciences, business, English, health and physical education, history, home living, industrial education, mathematics, music and speech.

Additional teaching majors are available in journalism, modern languages, and physics.

Dr. Billie Hollingshead became chairman of the Education Department following Robert Laird's departure for doctoral studies. Dr. L. Gail Johnson and Dr. Kent Myers are visiting professors this year.

Spirituality is gained through inspiring men. Our close circuit television network is used in all of our Book of Mormon classes. Tapes are pre-recorded at BYU and sent to church affiliated institutions.

Religion

Designed to develop testimonies of the gospel among the students, the Religion Department, offers members as well as non-members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints stimulating and instructive devotional speakers each Tuesday morning. Ranging from General Authorities to CCH faculty members, the program introduces gospel messages with congregational hymn singing and individual musical numbers.

The courses offered by the Religion Department are also varied, with Bible classes and World Religion offerings to specialized LDS courses in genealogy, Book of Mormon, Church History, Doctrine and Covenants, and missionary techniques.

Lawrence Rast, former Army chaplain, and Roger Gull of the LDS Institute in Honolulu are part-time instructors in the Religion Department, as well as faculty members from the other departments.

Business

This department offers four different majors: accounting, business education, business management, and executive assistant plus a two-year applied science program in business.

Aiming to prepare students for positions in the growing business world, the department provides courses in typing, shorthand, and business machines, income tax accounting, and other managerial and sales courses to enable students to acquire an understanding of the inter-relations between firms, the economy and society.

Student Body Officers

A very prominent group; our student body officers have tried to instill and promote the highest ideals of leadership and loyalty among our ever growing Student Body.

And so at the end of another school year their pictures and names enter our Hall of Fame -- Na Hoa Pono to be added to the glorious History that has made the Church College of Hawaii what it is today.

I know I look like Clark Kent!

The Hui Alii was organized in 1962, for the purpose of preserving the Hawaiian culture. It has been a club which always has a large membership, but it has never gained any real prominence until this past year. Under the leadership of President Thomas Kanahale and the advisorship of Bro. Harvey, the Hawaiian club has made great strides in the past year and has become one of the most powerful as well as most popular clubs on campus.

Some of the club's achievements during the past school year are as follows: it was in charge of the entire Aloha Week; putting on a parade and several Hawaiian programs during that week. It sponsored the Holoku Ball which was one of the better dances of the year. During Christmas the club collected donations for the State Hospital at Koneohe and also put on a program there for the patients. At Homecoming it won first prize for the best jalopy. The Club also participated in the Pacific Islands Week's activities and won first prize, which was a trophy and $30.00. It put on a May Day program of Hawaiian culture.

Aloha Week is here and the Hui Alii presents their royal court

The Hawaiian Club is determined to go on to bigger and better things in the years to come.

1967-68 was the first year for the Hawaii College Conference and with a total game win-loss record of 9-1. CCH was the first college to win. This was an extra-ordinary year for CCH in basketball. As Coach Jarman stated, "Each man was an important cog in the wheel, we could not have won without every one of them."

Other than the usual bruises, bumps and sprains from the game, CCH was not hurting too bad until the last game when Sidney Sandstrom lost a toe or two to the lawnmower and consequently did not make it to that game.

For the season CCH had a record of 23 wins and 4 losses. Congratulations to the Champions of the HCC Conference and to Coach Jarman.

Wait a minute....I won't hurt you.

Rugby

Alright band, let 'em here you out there.

Aaa . . . aaaaa . . . uuuuu . uughhhhhhh!!!!!!

What a handsome team we got here.

Brother Lowell said, "The game with Stanford was the athletic thrill of my career. Areal rock-em sock-em rugby game that was a beauty to behold. We look forward to playing them again some place that is a bit warmer. Our kicker is already practicing for next season." By the way, Brother Lowell has had his share of athdetic thrills; he is the head coach of the United States Olympic Volleyball Team.

Continued domination of Hawaii soccer was the key this year as the Seasideers successfully defended two crowns (their third Hawaii Cup title in a row, their second Hawaii Soccer Association crown in as many years). The CCH contingent, under the tutelage of Pierre Kimitete and Shishir Kumar lost two early season matches, but rallied to win a dozen in a row.

In November, the Tahiti champions paid a visit to Laie, trimming the Collegians twice in pre-season play. Last summer the CCH team had won two of four matches in Tahiti and American Samoa.

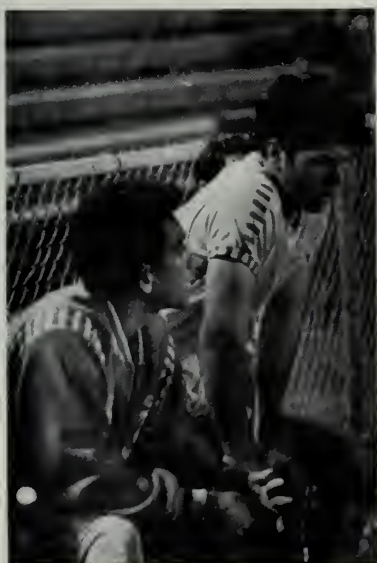

Perhaps you men wonder just why I've called this meeting?

I should have done what?!!

UP UP and away we Goooooooooooooooooooooooooooo

Now I was thinking...

GOOPS! Sorry 'bout that.

One more slam at CCH and I'll come in there myself.

Won't you Charleston with me?

CCH went into the meet a real underdog as was shown by an article in the Sunday paper in which the University of Hawaii's coach Peter Goo stated that he had the strongest team in years and that they were going to "warm-up" for the State Free-style meet 13 of April by competing in the meet at Laie.

After the meet it was apparent that Church College was not a "warm-up" but a very strong, well balanced team.

College wrestlers won 4 first places, 4 second places and one third, John Philip was particularly impressive in winning both of his matches by a pin. He pinned his last opponent in 14 seconds.

Individual State Champions from CCH are: John Philip-Unlimited, Don Carstensen-154 pound class, Uluamu Tuifua-140 pound class, William Hussey - 125 pound class.

Second place winners were: Dennis Camit-114 pound class, Clarence Uyema-138 pound class, Larry Clark-146 pound class, and Sione Vehekite- 191 pound class.

Third place was won by Alani Pahulu in the 163 pound class.

Coach John Lowell stated that he has seldom been as proud of a team. "They are a group of dedicated, well trained, well-mannered athletes who can really scrap when the chips are down," he concluded.

Wrestling

First Row: Larry Clark, Clarence Uyema, Uluamu Tuifau, Dennis Camit, Second Row: John Lowell (Coach), John Philip, Alani Pahulu missing: William Hussey, Don Carstensen

The Church College wrestling team brought home the first state championship of the year, March 23, 1968, when they won the Greco-Roman Wrestling meet.

According to John Lowell, Director, it was indeed a real credit to the CCH team that they were able to win and, in fact, dominate the meet.

Team scores of 33 for CCH and 24 for runner up, University of Hawaii, indicate the dominance.

I told you not to call my bluff.

I give up! You can use my wrestling notes.

KA POW!!! No one calls me hippy.

'Ken and Basso you mind if we play, too?'

NA HOA PONO PAGEANT

The Na Hoa Pono Pageant came to a climax when Miss Shirleyanne Gunning was crowned Na Hoa Pono Queen, with Naomi Kahoilua and Caroline Wolfgram as her attendants. Also named at the dance were Caroline Wolfgram as "Miss Popularity" and Marvalee Soon as "Miss Congeniality." After the coronation the new court resided over the remainder of the dance.

Intermission entertainment was provided by Tearo Mdo.

Naomi is shown in the talent competition.

ASSEMBLIES

Yvonne Kan's talent as a pianist was a determining factor in her reaching the finals.

NARCISSUS FESTIVAL

CCH student Yvonne Kan was among the winners in the annual Narcissus Festival. She was second runner-up to the Queen, Cheryl Lau. Another CCH student, Marilyn Leong, was also a contestant in the festival.

Yvonne Kan, second from the left, representing the Church College of Hawaii is shown with the Narcissus Festival royalty. Yvonne was second runner-up to the Queen.

Theodore Ullman takes a bow after a brilliant performance.

MUSIC AND MUSIC

A variety of musically oriented assemblies were presented to the CCH student body this year. The Thursday Entertainment assemblies offered the more popular styles of music with the Entertainers Five, The Genoa Keawe Trio, and Jimmy Murphy being just a few. The Lyceum program presented some of the more classical artists. The performances included the concert pianist Theodore Ullman, the UCLA Men's Glee Club, and the opera La Traviata.

Traveling Assembly

This year's Traveling Assembly presented a delightful program at the CCH auditorium, having already toured the outer islands and Oahu. The Traveling Assembly was a variety show having a theme of "Happiness." The entertainment ranged from song and dance to instrumental numbers--from a real western "hoe-down" to a sampling of Polynesian dances. The entire performance was received with great enthusiasm.

Dave and Bette join in the theme presentation "HAppiness"!

"Bamboo", an old folk song, is rendered by Sape Hunkin, Arvay Siufanua, and Eka Sua.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S DORMS 2

You don't "wash out" an excited Frenchman that easy! Geev um, Airalid!

Dorm Two's assembly was oriented about their theme, "We're Undecided Now!" The assembly presented the "ideas" of a dorm assembly committee as they attempted to work out their show. The result was a series of humorous, as well as serious sequences.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S DORMS 3

Dorm Three's assembly, "Up, Up with People," displayed a number of songs and dances that were representative of various nations of the world. The final song, "This Land is Your Land" was appropriately changed to refer to all people.

THE BOYFRIEND!

The Boyfriend, a Broadway musical directed by David Jacobs, CCH drama director, was one of the most colorful and exciting productions ever shown at CCH. The musical portrayed the glamor and gaiety of the "Roaring Twenties" on the French Riviera. Lavish sets, designed and constructed by Michael Bow enhanced the delightful costuming and excellent choreography. Outstanding performances were given by the romantic leads, Carma Coburn and David Schepps, as well as by Carol Ann Torsak and Lambert McGrath, and by Tisa Christiansen and John Bracht, and the chorus and dancers. The merriment and madness of "The Twenties" were relived at CCH.

HOMECOMING DANCE

This year's Homecoming Dance was set under the theme, "The Look of Love." The Royalty well represented the Church College in their beauty, charm and poise. Homecoming Queen was the lovely Yolanda Akita with Bette Oveson as first runner-up and Beverly Tano, second runner-up. The dance and all festivities of Homecoming were enjoyed by all.

The February Birthday Party was actually a combination event. It was a party honoring those whose birthdays fell in February, a beginning-of-the-semester luau, and an occasion to say farewell to the Houghtons. It was a party enjoyed by all.

Leonard was anxious to perform....he is so seldom a part of things.

PACIFIC WEEK

Pacific Islands Week was a week of song and dance, and of learning about people. Preference Ball was reigned over by 'Most Preferred Man' Glen Tuia, center, Rex Frandsen, first attendant, and Sosaia Paonga, second attendant.

PREFERENCE BALL

Set under the theme, "Love is Blue," this year's Preference Ball was very successful. Couples dressed in their formal attire danced to the music of the Jerry Jardin Band. The highlight of the evening came with the crowning of Glen Tuia as "Most Preferred Man--1968," and Rex Frandsen and Sosaia Paonga as attendants. It was an exciting evening for all concerned.

The theme of Preference Ball, "Love is Blue", is sung by Nevada Whitford.

Da Kine Guys were also there to perform.

The school year 1967-68 has been an increased improvement and growth here on campus. The campus wards have now been divided into three separate wards.

Ward I is comprised of Hale Pukuniahī and Hale Naimanui and all the married couples living off campus.

Ward II is comprised of Hale Napela and Hale Nainoa
Ward III is comprised of Hale Malo and Hale Pukui.

Brother Roundy is Bishop of Ward I. Dr. Barney is Bishop of Ward II. Brother Dwayne Andersen is Bishop of Ward III.

Brother Lindsay assists many elderly church members with their genealogical research.

It is pretty much a proven fact that all mankind desires happiness. Many strive to find happiness through various means of worldly pleasure. Few, however, realize that the key to real happiness may be found in a declaration of Jesus of Nazareth: "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it." (Matt. 16:25)

This past year, while serving as Bishop of CCH Ward I, I have seen many young people who are losing their lives. When I watch the many young people devote hours of service to the Church, give of their tithes and offerings, show an interest in their fellow students through the home teaching program, and nay number of unselfish services, I think I begin to get a peek at celestial love.

We should regard service to the Lord as a privilege and not look upon it in the least as a burdening obligation--although we do have an obligation to do something in return for all the Lord has done for us. King Benjamin put it well when he said: "When we are in the service of our fellow men we are only in the service of the Lord." (Mosiah 2:17)

We live our lives most completely when we strive to make the world better and happier for our fellow men. May I express my congratulations to the members of the ward for their efforts in trying to make the world happier and better for everyone at CCH. I have a deep love for everyone in the ward and the entire campus, and my greatest desire is that everyone find happiness--not happiness of the world, but happiness through righteous living.

There is one thing needful for joy to which man is entitled, and it is the greatest of all. It is the service we render mankind.

Serving as bishop for The Church College of Hawaii 2nd ward has been the most humbling and rewarding experience of my life. I am humbled as I head and feel the testimony of the young Saints in the ward, as I note their contributions to the church monitarily, and as they develop their talents and give their time. Of these students it could be said, "Faith with works brings life."

I am rewarded and strengthened by the strong, unquestioning testimonies of these young adults and by their willingness and most concern, to become involved in the programs of the church.

It is my prayer that the spirit of Our Heavenly Father will continue to be with each student to guide, direct, and "strive" with him or her. It is my further prayer that each young Latter-day Saint will have the courage to love close enough to the gospel to have the spirit of the Holy Ghost with him always. Remember, the Gospel is true.

"Whatever principle of intelligence we attain unto in this life, it will rise with us in the resurrection. And if a person gains more knowledge and intelligence in this life through his diligence and obedience than another, he will have so much the advantage in the world to come. There is a law irrevocably decreed in heaven before the foundation of this world upon which all blessings are predicated-- and when we obtain a blessing from God it is by obedience to that law upon which it is predicated." (D&C 130:18-20)

What a joy it is to be associated with this great institution which provides wonderful opportunities for students to gain both secular and religious knowledge. Many principles learned in the classroom are readily transferred to solving real life problems encountered by students serving in the college wards. An added dimension of knowledge is made available to the students who diligently carry out their church that will rise with them to further their eternal progression.

I am grateful for the privilege of serving as a bishop to a student ward. It is heart warming to watch you students grow in spiritual knowledge through your diligent service. You are truly following Alma's admonition, "Learn wisdom in your youth." May your spiritual knowledge keep abreast with your secular learning as you journey through life.

The Sophomore Class officers with Byron Cook as president and John L. Bracht as vice-president started out at the end of 1967 at least with good intentions. Traditionally responsible for Frosh initiation they directed initiation week, sponsored a "Longjohn" activity in Women's Dorm I, and then fell into a period of non-activity. Leadership may have been deserving of criticism, but "Sophomore Apathy" did not help any.

After first semester, when president Byron Cook left for the Army the Class leadership fell to vice-president John L. Bracht. After a little student body prompting and a realization that something had to be done the new president tried a number of times to organize a Class meeting. And so after some delayed action the Sophomore Class enjoyed two wonderful "evenings of the Town" in Honolulu with dinner and good entertainment and sponsored a film for the student body "55 Days at Peking."

This year's Junior Class has been one of the most active groups on campus due, largely, to the team effort of its officers.

Shortly after their election in the spring of '67, they met to start planning some of this year's activities. One of the outstanding projects was a nativity scene boasting life-size plaster figures with stereophonic music and back-lighted by two palm trees displaying 800 twinkle lights, which appeared in front of the College several days before Christmas. This display, which will be perpetuated from year to year, won grand prize in the decorating contest which extended from Hauula to Kahuku. Coupled with this project was the printing and selling of 12,000 Christmas cards highlighting the nativity scene. Twelve hundred of these cards were sent to Vietnam.

Also, one of the outstanding formals of the year, "AL DI LA," was the theme for the Junior Prom. By making new and interesting decoration ideas such as a parachute ceiling, submitted by students.

The Junior Class officers were also very active in studentbody affairs, introducing and amending policies in the Representative Assembly and I.C.C.

Seniors

ADVISOR: Richard Niedrich

The Senior class of 1967-68 was the largest since the founding of CCH. Although they got off to a slow start at the first of the year they were able to sponsor a Hobo Hop and a 'Career Day' (for those Seniors interested in obtaining jobs in Hawaii right after graduation) during the first semester. As second semester rolled around, they started planning for their Senior Banquet which was held in the Wai-kiki Plaza Room. The evening was an enjoyable one for all who attended. The Commencement Ball, sponsored by the Freshman class in honor of the Seniors was also an event to remember.

Many members of the Senior class held positions in studentbody government and in their respective campus wards. These were oppor-tunities for growth for all of these people. Several members of the Senior class were recognized and honored as a result of their dili-gence as students of CCH.

As Commencement approa-ches, we look backward over our years at CCH and we rea-lize that we have grown - phy-sically; mentally; spiritually - in our years here; we realize that we have acquired some of the characteristics of a Right-eous Companion.

Evidences to Support Church

4,000 year old Egyptian manuscripts, believed lost since A.D. 1871, were found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. At least one of the papyrus manuscripts relates to scriptural doctrine of the LDS church.
